THE SWIFTER is a trio featuring Andrea Belfi (drums and percussion), BJNilsen (electronics) and Simon James Phillips (piano). Formed in 2011 to record their debut eponymous album, which was released by The Wormhole in 2012. A second album is under way – www.the-swifter.com

MARK SCHREIBER works with sound and visual means to investigate ideas surrounding language and systems. His practice includes performance, sound, installation, video, and an expanding interest in other visual forms. His first album, 'Crossarc Chute', was published by Entr'acte earlier this year – www.markschreiber.org

DALE CORNISH – Born, raised and current of London (south). No Bra (2004-6): co-wrote unexpected hit 'Munchausen'. Terse humour and observations/worldly interests further evident with work of ecstatic noise trio Baraclough (2006–). Current focus is on solo and collaborative works and performances. New album, 'Fleshpile Sister', a selection of dub versions of vocal album 'Fleshpile Thematic' (released by The Tapeworm in January 2013) is to be released on Entr'acte in time for summer. Previous solo releases include 'Glacial' (Entr'acte, 2012) – www.dalecornish.com

ZEROCROP is the pseudonym of London-based independent recording artist Parker, who has been writing and recording under that name since 2000. Age has not withered nor custom staled his infinite variety of sourness and ruin – www.zerocrop.com

...plus intermittent noises courtesy of PHILIP MARSHALL – www.tapeworm.org.uk and the mysterious DEMO DOG of the ENTR'ACTE imprint – www.entracte.co.uk
